

Contacts: Vanessa Reyes-Smith Rachel Sandler
 310-752-8081 212-846-4412
 Vanessa.reyes@tvland.com Rachel.Sandler@tvland.com

The schedule for Leave it to Beaver is as follows (all times listed are ET/PT):

Saturday October 6, 2007

- 8p It's A Small World
This rarely-seen 1957 pilot features Wally and Beaver trying to collect hundreds of bottle caps in order to win a shining new bike from a local milk company.
- 8:30p #001 - Beaver Gets "Spelled"
Beaver's new teacher, Miss Canfield hands him a note after school. The other kids convince him that a note home means he's getting kicked out of school. Beaver hides the note and Miss Canfield finds it the next day. Wally types a reply from Mrs. Ward Cleaver assuring the teacher that Beaver has been punished for his wrongdoings at school. Miss Canfield calls home to find out why Beaver was punished as a result of her request that he play Smokey Bear in the Fire Prevention Pageant. Guest Star(s): Doris Packer
- 9p #234 - Family Scrapbook
This whole episode is comprised of reminiscing over incidents from a photo album that June has found while cleaning out the cabinet. It covers such memories as Beaver's first note from school to Wally running for class president.
- 9:30p #006 - New Neighbors
Beaver is sent over to the Donaldson's house to deliver flowers from June. While over there, Mrs. Donaldson kisses Beaver on the cheek. Wally and Eddie tell Beaver that he has done something terrible by letting her do that, and that Mr.

Donaldson is going to kill him. Beaver runs away from the Donaldson's every time he sees them until Ward figures out what is going on and explains to Beaver that he really didn't do anything wrong.

10p

#027 - My Brother's Girl

Wally's school is holding an eighth grade dance, but Wally doesn't want to go with a girl because he hates girls. Wally wants to go with Eddie, but Mary Ellen Rogers wants to go with Wally and she will do whatever it takes to get him to go with her.

10:30p

#038 - Beaver Runs Away

After Ward scolds Beaver for using his tools even though he told him not to, Beaver packs his things and decides to run away. Before leaving, he tells his father his plans to run away, but when his father wishes him well, Beaver realizes that he doesn't really want to be out on the streets, but he goes anyway to prove a point.

11p

#047 - The Shave

Wally is upset because he feels he is the only boy in school who isn't shaving yet. After he attempts to shave himself and nicks his own face, he father yells at him telling Wally that it is unhealthy to shave everyday. Ward thinks this will discourage Wally from wanting to shave, but it actually encourages him.

11:30p

#087 - Teacher Comes To Dinner

Beaver thinks that Miss Landers is a wonderful teacher and invites her over for dinner one night. Larry and a few others spy on the teacher eating, and Beaver becomes embarrassed when they are spotted. However, it works out in the end because all of the little spies are invited to stay for desert and all are forgiven.

Sunday October 7, 2007

12a

#093 - Larry Hides Out

Larry gets in trouble at home because he was reading his sister's diary, so he decides to run away to Beaver's house. Beaver is able to convince his parents that Larry is not staying in their house, even though Larry was living in their bathtub.

Eventually Ward finds Larry by spotting his luggage and brings him home to his mother.

12:30a #097 - Wally's Election

When Wally was first nominated for the position of class president, he wanted nothing to do with it. However, Ward gets him so excited about it that Wally turns into a cocky politician and winds up losing the election.

1a It's A Small World

This rarely-seen 1957 pilot features Wally and Beaver trying to collect hundreds of bottle caps in order to win a shining new bike from a local milk company.

2a #109 - Mother's Day Composition

In honor of Mother's Day, Beaver is assigned to write an essay about his mother's life for a school paper. He finds that her life was boring, so he makes up an extravagant story about her and hands it in. The teacher knows that it's not true and confronts both Beaver and June about it.

2:30a #112 - Beaver The Model

After sending his picture into a magazine advertised model agency, Beaver receives a letter stating that he has been selected as a top prospect in the modeling field, and is invited to have his picture placed in a model's directory. It isn't long before Beaver receives another letter from the agency, now requesting payment of $30, their fee.

3a #114 - Beaver and Ivanhoe

Beaver reads ""Ivanhoe"" which was one of Ward's favorite childhood stories. It gives Beaver new ideas about knighthood and chivalry, and especially about helping ladies in distress. One day Beaver gets into a fight at the bus stop trying to help a young girl he thought was in trouble. It turned out the boy giving her trouble was her older brother, and he gave Beaver a piece of his mind for butting in.

3:30a #123 - Beaver's Freckles

Beaver becomes very self - conscious of his freckles to the point where he hates them. He tries to sandpaper his face and even wears his mother's make - up around the house. It isn't until Clyde Appleby sheds some light on the subject that Beaver begins to like his freckles again.

- 4a #133 - Ward's Million
Beaver decides that he wants his father Ward to become a millionaire, so he buys him a book called "'I Became a Millionaire in Twelve Months.'" Ward pretends to be thankful but knows he will never read it. Beaver's feelings are hurt when he finds this out, but the two have a touching father and son talk at the end that makes everything all right.
- 4:30a #141 - The Dramatic Club
Beaver joins Miss Lander's dramatic club and gets the lead in the play. He is excited until he learns that he has to kiss a girl on stage. After learning that, he no longer wants to be in the play, but he sacrifices for his parents. During the kissing scene, he pretends he is kissing his uncle Billy.
- 5a #146 - Wally's Dream Girl
Wally thinks he has finally met his dream girl - a transfer student named Ginny Townsend who is a year older than him. June decides to get involved by inviting Ginny on a family picnic. During this picnic, Wally realizes that he doesn't like her that much because she is allergic to chicken, doesn't eat, and breaks out in lumps when playing in the sun.
- 5:30a #169 - Beaver's First Date
Beaver asks Betsy Patterson out on a date. It was the first time he ever asked out a girl. Everything went well until Betsy asked another boy to dance and left Beaver to entertain himself. He found Whitey and Gilbert and they all hung out until the dance was over. Beaver decided he wasn't ready for another date for quite some time.
- 6a #171 - Farewell To Penny
Beaver and Penny always get into brutal fights with each other, and that's why both were in shock when Penny's mother invited Beaver to their farewell party. It turns out that they both had a good time at the party and even agreed that they like each other. However, once Penny learned that she wasn't really leaving school, the two went back to their old fighting ways.
- 6:30a #174 - Beaver's Long Night
Beaver is allowed to have a sleep over with Gilbert while June and Ward go out leaving them without a baby - sitter. The boys get really scared by a gangster movie that they watch and wind up calling the police to have people arrested that are walking around his house outside. He accidentally has Lumpy and Bill arrested, and has to apologize to their families the next day.

7a #180 - Wally Stays At Lumpy's

Wally asked to sleep over Lumpy's the night he was throwing a party, but his parents said that he had to come home after the party and that he couldn't sleep over. However, Lumpy begs Wally to sleep over after he discovered that somebody stained the rug. He knew he wouldn't get yelled at if Wally was around. Wally agrees and decides to pay the consequences later.

7:30a #202 - Tell It To Ella

Beaver wants to go to a jalopy race on a school night, and his parents won't let him. He decides to write a letter to "Tell It To Ella" which is an advice column in the school paper. He is shocked when Ella agrees with his parents' decision and does everything to make sure that they don't read it.

8a #210 - The Mustache

Wally's girl dumps him for a more sophisticated transfer student with a mustache. Wally decides to grow one himself, but it looks awful and everyone laughs at him. Julie does return to Wally, but she asks that he never grow a mustache again.

8:30a #218 - Box Office Attraction

Wally falls for an older woman who works in the box office at a movie theater. He soon finds out she is not his type when he sees her drinking beers and smoking cigarettes. By the end of the show he realizes that this dream girl is just not his type.

9a #230 - Beaver's Graduation

Beaver is looking through the packet of diplomas when he realizes his is not there. He begins to panic and asks Mrs. Rayburn if there has been some kind of mistake. She assures him that he is graduating, but he is going to be in the ceremony so she is holding his aside.

9:30a #234 - Family Scrapbook

This whole episode is comprised of reminiscing over incidents from a photo album that June has found while cleaning out the cabinet. It covers such memories as Beaver's first note from school to Wally running for class president.

- 10a It's A Small World
This rarely-seen 1957 pilot features Wally and Beaver trying to collect hundreds of bottle caps in order to win a shining new bike from a local milk company.
- 10:30a #001 - Beaver Gets "Spelled"
Beaver's new teacher, Miss Canfield hands him a note after school. The other kids convince him that a note home means he's getting kicked out of school. Beaver hides the note and Miss Canfield finds it the next day. Wally types a reply from Mrs. Ward Cleaver assuring the teacher that Beaver has been punished for his wrongdoings at school. Miss Canfield calls home to find out why Beaver was punished as a result of her request that he play Smokey Bear in the Fire Prevention Pageant. Guest Star(s): Doris Packer
- 11a #002 - Captain Jack
The boys send away for a genuine Florida alligator and decide to keep it secretly in their bathroom. Eventually it outgrows the bathroom and is moved to the basement where the boys charge ten cents to the neighborhood kids for a quick peak. They name him after Captain Jack, who owned an alligator farm and advised the boys on how to take care of their alligator until June found out. Guest Star(s): Edgar Bushanan
- 11:30a #004 - The Black Eye
Beaver comes home one from school one day with a black eye. Ward is very upset to learn that Beaver didn't fight back until he found out that it was Violet Rutherford that hit his son. Ward then taught Beaver how to defend himself against his aggressors. Later on that day, Beaver and Violet were found playing together in the park and had apparently forgotten about the fight earlier. Guest Star(s): Richard Deacon
- 12p #005 - The Haircut
Beaver has lost the haircut money that Ward had given him, so he locks himself in the bathroom and decides to cut his own hair. The results are disastrous, and now Beaver and Wally have to figure out how to hide his new hair cut from Ward and June until it grows out.
- 12:30p #011 - Wally's Girl Trouble

A girl has come between Wally and Beaver and Beaver feels he has lost his brother. Beaver asks Ward what he can do to win his brother back, and Ward suggests getting Wally's girlfriend something nice because then she will like him. When Beaver decides to give Penny his favorite frog, Penny dumps Wally and Beaver gets his brother back.

1p

#014 - Voodoo Magic

Against their parents orders, Wally and Beaver decide to go to a double feature about Voodoo magic. Eddie was the person who convinced them to go because they won't get caught. Of course they get caught and Beaver puts a curse on Eddie because he is so mad.

2p

#034 - Beaver's Bad Day

Beaver goes out to play wearing his new gray flannel suit, but rips it on a nail while getting off a see-saw.

2:30p

#039 - Beavers Guest

Beaver has his friend Larry Mondello stay with him for the weekend. However, after only a few hours of being there, Larry wants desperately to go home because he accuses Beaver of punching him in the stomach. Larry's stomach does hurt, but the truth is that it is because Larry ate too many candy bars before he came over and now he feels sick.

3p

#044 - Beaver and Chuey

Beaver has a new friend named Chuey Varela who only speaks Spanish. Beaver goes to Eddie to help him speak it since Eddie took Spanish in school, but Eddie plays a mean joke on Beaver. Instead of telling Beaver nice things to say to his friend, Eddie tells Beaver how to say ""you have the face of a pig"" to his new friend Chuey.

3:30p

#054 - The Grass Is Always Greener

Beaver and Wally learn a valuable lesson which is to not take what they have for granted after they become friends with two young boys who have less than they do.

4p

#097 - Wally's Election

When Wally was first nominated for the position of class president, he wanted nothing to do with it. However, Ward gets him so excited about it that Wally turns into a cocky politician and winds up losing the election.

4:30p

#109 - Mother's Day Composition

In honor of Mother's Day, Beaver is assigned to write an essay about his mother's life for a school paper. He finds that her life was boring, so he makes up an extravagant story about her and hands it in. The teacher knows that it's not true and confronts both Beaver and June about it.

5p

#115 - Wally's Play

Wally has joined a male club at school and learns that they are putting on a play and he's disappointed when he learns that the part he's to play is that of a chorus girl. Later, Beaver and Gilbert make matters worse when they discover that Wally's costume is a dress.

5:30p

#130 - Beaver's Accordion

Beaver goes behind his parents back and orders an accordion for a five day trial period. He winds up keeping the accordion for a lot longer than that, and when a man comes to collect it he gets in trouble with his parents. His mother accidentally breaks the accordion, but Beaver will have to pay for the damages because he lied to them.

6p

#133 - Ward's Million

Beaver decides that he wants his father Ward to become a millionaire, so he buys him a book called "I Became a Millionaire in Twelve Months." Ward pretends to be thankful but knows he will never read it. Beaver's feelings are hurt when he finds this out, but the two have a touching father and son talk at the end that makes everything all right.

6:30p

#149 - In The Soup

Beaver and Whitey become fascinated by a billboard they see of a woman holding a cup full of soup. Beaver climbs up the cup and looks in to prove that there is no soup in the cup, but then he falls in and is too short to get out. The fire department has to come to get Beaver out of the empty cup of soup.

7p

#234 - Family Scrapbook

This whole episode is comprised of reminiscing over incidents from a photo album that June has found while cleaning out the cabinet. It covers such memories as Beaver's first note from school to Wally running for class president.

7:30p

Pilot - It's A Small World

Beaver and Wally collect hundreds of milk bottle caps in hopes of winning a new bike. Unbeknownst to them, the contest was a joke played on them by neighborhood tough guy Frankie and they learn a valuable lesson about earning rewards.